

Classroom Culture Checklist:

QUICK CLASSROOM WALK-THROUGH

		YES	NO	N/A	Comments
Classroom Expectations	Classroom expectations are clear, positively stated, and posted where all students can see them.
	Teacher periodically refers to classroom expectations.
	Teacher praises students when they meet classroom expectations.
Behaviors and Relationships	Teacher and students greet each other upon entering the classroom.
	Teacher shows genuine interest in students' lives, activities, goals, and challenges.
	Teacher models warm and friendly behavior.
	Students exhibit warm and friendly behavior.
	Students respectfully gain the teacher's attention (e.g., raise hands).
	Students easily accept a "no" answer.
	Students respectfully disagree with each other and teacher.
Praise and Consequences	Students easily accept feedback or consequences.
	Teacher uses intentional or skill-focused praise (e.g., "Thanks for showing respect to our visiting guest").
	There is a 4:1 praise-to-correction ratio. (See tally chart below.)
Tally Chart	Praise		Correction		Ratio: ____ to ____

Create a plan to improve classroom culture throughout your school.
Visit BoysTownTraining.org for the resources you need to get started.

